If I were ...

Kabubbu pilot site
English

If I were a bank manager, I would be giving money to everybody.

1

If I were a vehicle, I would transport people free of charge.

If I were a hunter, I would hunt for animals which have no hair.
If I were a rat, I would grow fat and chase the cat.

If I were a baby, I would cry for only expensive things.

If I were a cat, I would be eating rats to grow fatter.

If I were a hen, I would be laying golden eggs for people.

If I were a beggar, I would not accept coins.

If I were a doctor, I would treat people with slaps!

If I were a priest, I would be taking all people to heaven.

If I were a mosquito, I would be sleeping under a mosquito net.

If I were ...

Writer: Kabubbu pilot site
Illustration: Wiehan de Jager, Cathy Feek, Rebecca Riley, Marleen Visser, Jano Strydom, Alice Toich, Karen Lilje, Natalie Propa and Rob Owen
Language: English

© Kabubbu pilot site, 2014

Saide
South African Institute for Distance Education

www.africanstorybook.org
A Saide Initiative