

My new shirt

Ivan Higenyi
English

Samba's dad bought him a new school shirt last market day.

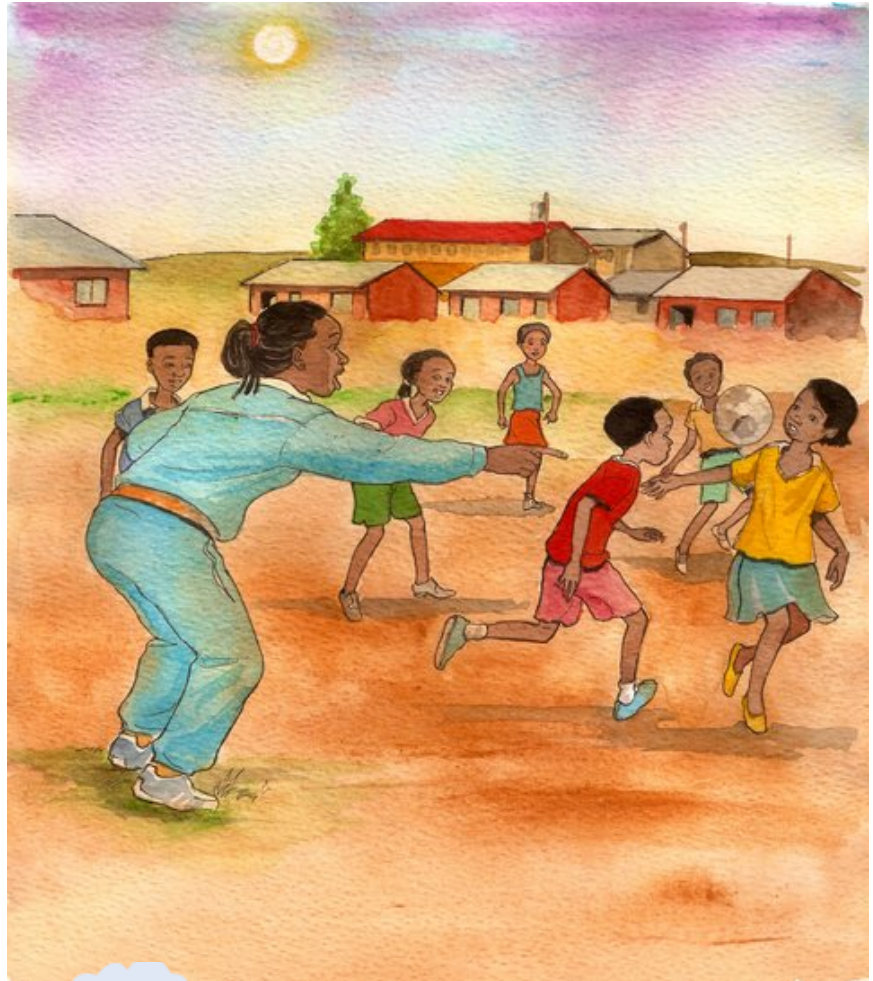

Samba never misses school. He walks to school with his little sister.

Samba likes playing football after school. He wears his new shirt.

The shirt gets dirty. But Samba does not want to wash it!

On the field, Samba wants everyone to see his new shirt.

In the morning Samba goes to school with the dirty shirt. He sees the teacher waiting at the gate.

Samba dodges school that day and goes across the road to play football.

Unfortunately the new shirt gets torn. Now Samba is in trouble for dodging school and for tearing his new school shirt.

My new shirt

Writer: Ivan Higenyi

Illustration: Sandy Lightly, Wiehan de Jager, Vusi Malindi, Jano Strydom, Benard Agasi, Joseph Ejoyi, Rob Owen and Catherine Groenewald
Language: English

All children get excited when they get new things. So they must be guided on how to handle such things.

© Busolwe public library, 2014

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution
(CC-BY 4.0) Version 4.0 International Licence

Disclaimer: You are free to download, copy, translate or adapt this story and use the illustrations as long as you attribute or credit the original author/s and illustrator/s.

Saide
South African Institute
for Distance Education

www.africanstorybook.org
A Saide Initiative